Description

Ideal for growing businesses, these versatile units are built with steel frame construction and offer generous eaves heights between 3.25 and 4.92 metres—perfect for a range of operational needs. Each unit features a secure, level-access roller shutter door alongside a separate pedestrian entrance, ensuring both convenience and security. Inside, you'll find practical office space and WC facilities, making it easy to manage day-to-day operations. With 24-hour access, on-site parking, and excellent transport links—including quick access to the M4 via the A4042—this location supports flexibility and connectivity for businesses on the move.

Location

ARD Business Park is conveniently located on the well-established Polo Grounds Industrial Estate, just one mile southeast of Pontypool. The estate offers excellent connectivity, with direct access to the A4042 dual carriageway, linking swiftly to Junctions 25A and 26 of the M4—only seven miles away. This strategic position makes it easy for businesses to reach Cardiff, which is just 20 miles to the southwest, while also benefiting from strong regional transport links for staff, clients, and deliveries.
