Location

Wardpark Industrial Estate's main benefit is its close access to Scotland's key motorway network. Located next to the M80 motorway, it provides direct routes to Glasgow to the west and Stirling to the north. The M80 connects easily to the M73, M8, and M74, forming a convenient distribution triangle linking Glasgow, Edinburgh, and northern England.

This location puts around 90% of Scotland's population within a 90-minute drive, making it an excellent choice for logistics, distribution, and service businesses. Glasgow and Edinburgh International Airports are also nearby, usually a 30-40 minute drive, supporting both national and international travel.

Wardpark hosts a wide range of businesses, from large national distributors and manufacturers to local trade counters and light industrial workshops.
