The fully refurbished units form part of a modern terrace of businesses units situated in one of the UK's most established industrial areas, home to over 1,700 businesses. All three units provide light industrial workshop space at ground level with storage and office accommodation at first floor. The units have been fully refurbished and offer bright accommodation with excellent natural light throughout. All units are accessed via an electric roller shutter as well as a pedestrian door.

The units on Cullen Way form part of the wider Park Royal Works scheme which benefits from a dedicated building manager for face-to-face support, a friendly on-site cafe and convenient allocated parking.
